

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS

Please amend the claims as follows:

Claims 1-31. (Cancelled).

32. (Currently amended) A cellular telephone having a visual indicator comprising an electro-optic medium having at least two different display states, the electro-optic medium being arranged to change its display state when a call is received by the telephone, the external surface of the cellular telephone comprising at least three separate surfaces and the visual indicator being present on at least two of said separate surfaces.

33. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 32 wherein the electro-optic medium is arranged to change repeatedly between said at least two different display states when a call is received by the telephone.

34. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 33 wherein the electro-optic medium has at least two modes of changing repeatedly between said at least two different display states when a call is received by the telephone.

35. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 32 wherein the visual indicator covers an area of at least about 1 cm<sup>2</sup>.

36. (Cancelled).

37. (Currently amended) A cellular telephone according to claim ~~[[36]]~~32 wherein the visual indicator covers at least about 5 per cent of the external surface of the cellular telephone.

38. (Cancelled).

39. (Currently amended) A cellular telephone according to claim ~~[[38]]~~32 having a substantially cuboidal form with a front surface bearing a key pad, an opposed rear surface, and at least two side opposed surfaces and two opposed end surfaces extending between the front and rear surfaces, and wherein the visual indicator is present on the rear surface and an opposed pair of the side and ~~[[rear]]~~end surfaces.

40. (Cancelled).

41. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 32 further comprising an audible indicator means for indicating when a call is received by the telephone, and selector means whereby a user may select operation of either the visual indicator means or the audible indicator means when a call is received by the telephone.

42. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 32 wherein the electro-optic medium comprises an electrophoretic medium.

43. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 42 wherein the electrophoretic medium is an encapsulated electrophoretic medium.

44. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 32 wherein the electro-optic medium comprises a rotating bichromal member medium.

45. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 32 wherein the electro-optic medium comprises an electrochromic medium.

46. (Original) A cellular telephone according to claim 45 wherein the electrochromic medium is a nanochromic film comprising an electrode formed at least in part from a semi-conducting metal oxide and a plurality of dye molecules capable of reversible color change attached to the electrode.

Claims 47-51. (Cancelled).
